

Career Mentoring Sessions

When: Monday, January 30th, 2017, 7:30pm-9:00pm
(Registration closes at 7:45pm)

Where: Conference Venue 9th Floor, 750 9th St, NW
Washington, D.C. (across from City Center)

naisA Global is pleased to offer the following career mentoring sessions for our members in the Washington Metro area. Each session will have about 7-10 protégés and we expect sessions to fill up quickly. We strongly recommend registering early through our eventbrite page.

<https://naisaglobalcareermentoringssession.eventbrite.com>

Once registered our program associate will contact you for your preferred session.

January 30th Career Mentoring Session topics:

Mark Teitelbaum
First Vice-President
CBRE

Getting into Commercial Real Estate

Jung Ran Lim
Senior Director
The Washington Center

Effective Communication
Skills

Rokas Beresniovas
Vice President
State Bank of India

Networking for Introverts

Shihoko Goto
Senior Associate
The Wilson Center

The In's & Out's of Think Tanks

Bay Fang
Executive Director
Radio Free Asia

My Top 10 List of Career Advice

Dr. Atsuko Sakurai
Senior Scientist
VLP Therapeutics

Starting a Career in Biotechnology

Sara Yang
Senior Policy Officer
World Bank

Maintaining a Proper
Work-Life Balance

Registration Fee: $20

New naisA Global Members and Full-time Students are eligible for 50% discount at registration. Mention this flyer when you email our program associate to receive the discount code.

Not sure if these topics are right for you? Ask our program associate, Taylor, for information about our February 8th, 2017 Career Mentoring Sessions.